

Louisville Democrat.

TUESDAY, MARCH 31, 1847.

Personal.

—Prof. O. S. Fowler, the distinguished physiologist and physiologist, reached this city yesterday, and will commence a course of lectures at Mozart Hall, this evening.

—Mr. Thomas J. Henley, it will be seen, has received the appointment of Superintendent of Indian Affairs in California. He formerly represented the Second Congressional District in Indiana.

—Dr. D. W. Strader, late of this city, was in St. Louis, on Thursday last, en route to Nebraska Territory. The leader pays him a handsome compliment.

—Bishop Spalding lectured in Washington City, on Friday evening last, the proceeds of which were devoted to one of the charitable societies of that city. The editors there are delighted with his efforts.

—Gov. A. P. Willard was in this city yesterday.

—Kunkin & Co. have leased the Old Fellows' Hall, at Norfolk, Va., in which to give dramatic entertainments. John T. Ford is to have the sole management, which is a sufficient guarantee that the citizens of Norfolk will have first-class entertainments.

—Charles Anderson, Esq., of Ohio, it is said, has been placed before the President as a fit and proper person for a first-class foreign mission.

—Col. Morrison, who did great service on the "border" during the Texan revolution, is about to return to the scenes of his exploits.

—M. D. Potter, Esq., one of the proprietors of the Cincinnati Commercial, is in the city at present. He is here to meet a friend, who will come a passenger on the steamer Memphis.

—Capt. Baird, of the unfortunate steamer Sultan, reached this city yesterday. The boat, cargo, books, papers, &c., were a total loss. There was no loss of life, however.

—D. Ricketts, Esq., the able President of the Jeffersonian and Indianapolis Railroad, but a member of the late Indiana Legislature, called upon us yesterday.

COMMITTED TO THE CHARGE OF MURDER.—James McMillen and Miles West, charged with the murder of George Keller, on Sunday night, the 22d inst., and who had a partial examination upon that charge on Saturday last, were brought into Police Court again yesterday morning for a full examination. No other testimony was introduced, the counsel for the prosecution and defense agreeing to waive other proof. McMillen was fully committed to answer the charge of murder at the next term of the Criminal Court, and West was also committed as an accessory before and to the fact. The testimony was amended up and fully enforced by the different counsel. Messrs. Wolfe and Elliott appeared for the Commonwealth, and Messrs. Gibson, Price, Lancaster, and Beard for the defense.

Our "military" friend Alexander was released from the work-house a day or two, on promise of evacuating the city immediately, but he was in Police Court again yesterday. Drunkenness seems to be Alexander's forte; he played this time, however, that he had been thrown from a spring wagon on his way to the Woodland Garden and crippled, and that his inability to locomote did not arise from drunkenness. Alexander relies greatly upon Judge Johnson's humanity, and he rather likes the sumptuous fare and kind treatment which he receives at Mr. Hill's hands, for he has permitted himself to come under the ban of the law no less than five times during the past two months. This time he was dismissed.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We learn that Messrs. Nevins & Bradley have taken the stable near the corner of First and Market streets, with the view of so improving and adding to the old establishment as to render it one of the most complete stables in the city. Great amendments have already been made, but the most important ones are yet to be consummated. Mr. Bradley is known to possess an experience and a taste in his business which eminently qualifies him for it; and, besides, is a reliable and clever gentleman. We will notice the improvement in this splendid stable hereafter.

THE modesty of the editor of the Journal is exemplified through his columns almost daily in that tender youth is at home. For a time he was absent, and his readers had well recovered from the sickening surfeit, but now he is home again the old doses are renewed. Some say, when the editor is pleased to call "our fair friend Buffalo"—some abolition admirer of his, we suppose—does him up in rhyme until he is beside himself. His readers should excuse his little weaknesses.

FIRE IN BARREN COUNTY.—We learn from the Glasgow Journal, of the 25th, that three fires occurred in that county last week. Henry P. Carter's barn, containing his entire crop of tobacco, was consumed, involving a heavy loss. On Sunday week the dwelling house of Mrs. Ann Depp, in the same neighborhood, with some of her furniture, was destroyed by fire. Mr. A. Duke, who lives near Woodland, lost about 2,000 panels of fence, one day last week leaving his crops all exposed.

SENDING AMUSEMENTS.—A large party of noisy men and boys were engaged at a boisterous game of ball on Sunday afternoon last, on the common between Preston and Jackson and Main and Washington streets. We are informed that this is customary of fine Sunday afternoons, and that it is very annoying to respectable people in the neighborhood, who wish to observe the Sabbath as a period of meditation and rest, and the attention of the police is called to the annoyance.

MISSISSIPPI MATTER.—There are ten copies of Greek Lessons at present in the Louisville post-office, the direction upon which has become so defunct that it is impossible for the Postmaster to send them to their destination. They are plainly directed to H. B. Titcomb, to either Columbus or Columbia, but the name of the State is unknown. The owner may recover them by addressing the Postmaster in this city.

RECKLESS.—A horse attached to a buggy, both the property of Mr. A. S. Wallace, driven by a German in Mr. W. A. employ, became frightened, in Market street, near Brook, yesterday, and ran into a tree, breaking the vehicle to pieces.

IT is stated that Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne, upon the completion of a tour in Europe, on which she proposes to enter early in the spring, will return to San Francisco, where she designs locating herself permanently.

PORTFOLIO.—A couple of negro boys, the property of Col. P. B. Hawkins, of Glasgow, were poisoned a few days since, by eating pop root, from which one of them has since died.

THE Kentucky Statesman announces that the Hon. John C. Breckinridge has reached his home in the enjoyment of his usual good health.

Thanks to the officers of the steamer William Knox, for a copy of the boat's manifest.

PROF. FOWLER TO-NIGHT.—We are to have the pleasure to-night to see and hear Professor Fowler for ourselves—a gentleman of whom we have read and heard so much. The subjects of which he treats are of the utmost importance to the world, and he treats them more ably and scientifically than any one of whom we have any knowledge. A leading paper of St. Louis, in which city Dr. Fowler has recently delivered a course of lectures, thus speaks of him and his lectures:

For the citizens, and for the city, few objects concentrate more importance and interest than those on which Professor Fowler stands conspicuously among the ablest expositors. His philosophical theory, which is clearly right in his grand views in the laws of health, and of health as the grand basis upon which rests a true or false life, a virtuous or a vicious condition of the society, if physical, if physical and mental strength, and vivacity of personal efficiency, sprightliness and grace; if gentle, manly feeling and action; in a word if the joys of heavenly health are better than the "ten thousand" of the body, this gentleman stands prominently before the people, and his philosophy converges where all true philosophy converges. In faith, in the wisdom that made us, we are made right, upon this all reasoning hangs.

THEATRE.—Mlle. Lola Montez made her first appearance last night before a crowded house, and the beauty and fashion of the city being largely represented. The impression she made upon the audience was decidedly favorable. She possesses a pleasing face and manner, which with great sprightliness and naturalness, rendered her performance very agreeable. Perhaps much of the interest manifested by the audience is due to the fact that the actress is also the heroine of the play—that she has actually gone through such or similar scenes as are presented. She will appear to-night in the same piece, and of course to another crowded house.

THE CHRISTIAN REPOSITORY.—We have received this admirable publication for April, edited in this city by Rev. S. H. Ford and lady, of the Baptist Church. It is embellished with a representation of "The High Priest in his Robes of Office." The contents are varied and interesting, thus: "Where did the Baptists Come From?" "The Two Effects of the Gospel," "Who Shall We Sprinkle Many Nations," "History of Salem Association," "Rise of the Reformation," "Temptation," with the department under the supervision of Mrs. Ford, and a general variety of editorials. The Repository is highly commended to the reading public.

WE understand that Jesse Hammond, a day watchman in the First Ward, has had a neighborhood difficulty with a family of females, which resulted in the officer appearing before the City Clerk and making oath that he believed the women and children would do him some physical injury, and asking protection from the court. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of the dangerous family, and they were brought to the Police Court yesterday morning. Hammond, however, thought better of the matter, and the suit was compromised at his cost.

ALL FOR ONE DOLLAR.—Great inducements at 96 Third Street.—Now is the time to get the gold watches, jewelry, and extra fine books, pocket knives, calms, and work-boxes cheap. No small gifts. Every purchaser of $10 worth of linens receives five gifts, worth from 50 cents to $100. Everybody is invited to call and examine the goods, which are new and desirable. No money is risked on chance, as every person is sure to get the worth of their money besides the linens, which is alone worth $10. One hundred thousand bottles have been sold since the first of January, 1847, and has given universal satisfaction in all diseases for which it is recommended. Remember, four bottles of linens, and a handsome gold watch, for $10. No. 96 Third Street, near the post-office.

WE understand that Jesse Hammond, a day watchman in the First Ward, has had a neighborhood difficulty with a family of females, which resulted in the officer appearing before the City Clerk and making oath that he believed the women and children would do him some physical injury, and asking protection from the court. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of the dangerous family, and they were brought to the Police Court yesterday morning. Hammond, however, thought better of the matter, and the suit was compromised at his cost.

ARRESTED FOR POST OFFICE ROBBERY.—A young man named Robert Corbaley, aged 17, or 18, was arrested by the U. S. mail agent in Plymouth, Marshall county, Ind., on Saturday morning, on a charge of robbing the post-office at that place on the night of the 5th inst. Corbaley had been acting in the capacity of deputy in the clerk's office, is very respectable connected, and up to the time of his arrest was very generally respected. Since his arrest several other crimes are charged against him.

ONE of the most ridiculous affairs that ever came under our observation, took place on the wharf Sunday afternoon. An old gray horse, that had become wearied of hard work fall down, and while in the last agonies of death, two claimants commenced pulling in contrary directions at the bridle. The result would have been a fatality, had not the police been on hand. This we might consider a contest between life and death.

THE attorney, Mr. J. P. Green, Esq., was arrested by the Police Court upon an ordinance warrant for allowing his collar-dog to remain open. Mr. Green appeared in self defense, and pleaded that his property was not located in a thoroughfare—that it was "out of humanity's reach"—being at Fifteenth and Green streets. The Court compounded with the defendant for the cost of suit.

THE distillers, Messrs. Gay & Pepper, of Frankfort, Ky., have ordered two large worms for their establishment. John Metcalfe & Bro. of this city, have received the cattle, and the worms are now about completed. They will be the largest ever shipped from this city. This firm is in a flourishing condition, and richly deserves the patronage they receive.

THE steamer Hibbard, now at our wharf, came in collision with the steamer Hastings, at Mingo Island, on Wednesday night last, which compelled her to remain over one day at Wheeling in making repairs. She made some water, but her cargo, which was large, suffered little or no damage.

ELOPEMENT.—We are informed that a young couple, well known in the upper portion of the city, eloped yesterday, with the view of committing matrimony. They took cars at New Albany, and expected to consummate their happiness in the neighborhood of New Providence.

JAMES WHITE, a slave of Mr. Edward Minor, was up before the Police Court yesterday morning charged with disorderly conduct and assaulting Mr. Openeheimer, the keeper of a clothing store up town. He was sentenced to be whipped.

WE call attention to the Marshall's sale of clothing to-day, on Main street, corner of Seventh. The stock is large, consisting of everything in the clothing line. The sale will be made to suit country merchants and retail dealers.

A box containing the remains of a human body was found on Wednesday in the lost baggage department of the Illinois Central Railroad at Chicago. It was directed to John A. Goldsberry, Bainbridge, Ind.

AFRAY.—An affray occurred in Barren county, near Pace's, on Thursday last, in which Jack Brown was killed. The row was general, but it is presumed that Bushrod Ritter was the man who killed Brown.

IF the gentleman who took an overcoat from our sanctum, by mistake, will identify himself to us, we will hear something to our advantage.

THE Delta, with her barge from Cincinnati, both fully freighted, landed at the wharf on Sunday. She is on her way to New Orleans.

Thanks to Mr. H. C. Landrum, clerk of the fine steamer H. D. Newcomb, for late Southern papers and other favors.

WE return our acknowledgments to W. A. Patman, Esq., of the mail service, for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

THE River.—The river continues to fall at this point, with 4 feet 8 inches in the pass on the Falls.

THE Know-Nothing State Council will meet in this city on Thursday next.

OUR German friends attended the Theatre in large numbers, to see the willow Countess, who had acted so conspicuously in a Bavarian political.

ARRESTS.—We heard of four arrests yesterday, two for drunkenness, and two for slight misdemeanors.

HURLEY'S Saraparilla is everywhere admitted one of the most reliable and radical cures for scrofula, chronic bronchial affections, incipient phthisis, enlarged liver or spleen, and all those anomalous complaints incident to glandular disease. It is beyond all question one of the most searching and purifying medicines that can be used, and, during the spring, well adapted for the removal and permanent cure of those diseases which take their origin in an impure condition of the blood.

RESTORATIVE FOR THE HAIR.—The age in which we live is truly one of research and discovery, and to Professor Wood the present and succeeding generations are indebted for one of the most valuable remedies produced for the restoration of the hair, which is so necessary to young men to begin to lose their hair, and some turn gray, but by the use of this truly wonderful preparation, its tendency to fall off is arrested, or restored to its original color, and it is rendered soft and glossy in appearance. Remember, this is not a dye. We hear it highly spoken of—Quincy (Ill.) Patriot.

Sold by all druggists and dealers in Louisville.

SPRING AND SUMMER FANCY DAY GOODS.—We would respectfully invite the attention of ladies to the large and attractive stock of fancy and staple dry goods, at the store of G. B. Tabby, corner of Fourth and Market streets. At this house can be found a large and splendid assortment of every description of spring and summer goods, which, in point of style and elegance, cannot be equalled by that of any other Western store. They have a large stock of fancy Dress Silks; Silk Robes; Grenadine, Barege, and Organdie Robes; Embroideries; Lace Goods; Silk and Lace Mantillas; Parasols; Cateenae; and Victoria Stripes; white and colored figured (new) Oriental Laces; Jaconets and Lawns; together with a large stock of Cottons; Plain Cottons, Ombre, Linens, &c.

ALL FOR ONE DOLLAR.—Great inducements at 96 Third Street.—Now is the time to get the gold watches, jewelry, and extra fine books, pocket knives, calms, and work-boxes cheap. No small gifts. Every purchaser of $10 worth of linens receives five gifts, worth from 50 cents to $100. Everybody is invited to call and examine the goods, which are new and desirable. No money is risked on chance, as every person is sure to get the worth of their money besides the linens, which is alone worth $10. One hundred thousand bottles have been sold since the first of January, 1847, and has given universal satisfaction in all diseases for which it is recommended. Remember, four bottles of linens, and a handsome gold watch, for $10. No. 96 Third Street, near the post-office.

WE understand that Jesse Hammond, a day watchman in the First Ward, has had a neighborhood difficulty with a family of females, which resulted in the officer appearing before the City Clerk and making oath that he believed the women and children would do him some physical injury, and asking protection from the court. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of the dangerous family, and they were brought to the Police Court yesterday morning. Hammond, however, thought better of the matter, and the suit was compromised at his cost.

ARRESTED FOR POST OFFICE ROBBERY.—A young man named Robert Corbaley, aged 17, or 18, was arrested by the U. S. mail agent in Plymouth, Marshall county, Ind., on Saturday morning, on a charge of robbing the post-office at that place on the night of the 5th inst. Corbaley had been acting in the capacity of deputy in the clerk's office, is very respectable connected, and up to the time of his arrest was very generally respected. Since his arrest several other crimes are charged against him.

ONE of the most ridiculous affairs that ever came under our observation, took place on the wharf Sunday afternoon. An old gray horse, that had become wearied of hard work fall down, and while in the last agonies of death, two claimants commenced pulling in contrary directions at the bridle. The result would have been a fatality, had not the police been on hand. This we might consider a contest between life and death.

THE attorney, Mr. J. P. Green, Esq., was arrested by the Police Court upon an ordinance warrant for allowing his collar-dog to remain open. Mr. Green appeared in self defense, and pleaded that his property was not located in a thoroughfare—that it was "out of humanity's reach"—being at Fifteenth and Green streets. The Court compounded with the defendant for the cost of suit.

THE distillers, Messrs. Gay & Pepper, of Frankfort, Ky., have ordered two large worms for their establishment. John Metcalfe & Bro. of this city, have received the cattle, and the worms are now about completed. They will be the largest ever shipped from this city. This firm is in a flourishing condition, and richly deserves the patronage they receive.

THE steamer Hibbard, now at our wharf, came in collision with the steamer Hastings, at Mingo Island, on Wednesday night last, which compelled her to remain over one day at Wheeling in making repairs. She made some water, but her cargo, which was large, suffered little or no damage.

ELOPEMENT.—We are informed that a young couple, well known in the upper portion of the city, eloped yesterday, with the view of committing matrimony. They took cars at New Albany, and expected to consummate their happiness in the neighborhood of New Providence.

JAMES WHITE, a slave of Mr. Edward Minor, was up before the Police Court yesterday morning charged with disorderly conduct and assaulting Mr. Openeheimer, the keeper of a clothing store up town. He was sentenced to be whipped.

WE call attention to the Marshall's sale of clothing to-day, on Main street, corner of Seventh. The stock is large, consisting of everything in the clothing line. The sale will be made to suit country merchants and retail dealers.

A box containing the remains of a human body was found on Wednesday in the lost baggage department of the Illinois Central Railroad at Chicago. It was directed to John A. Goldsberry, Bainbridge, Ind.

AFRAY.—An affray occurred in Barren county, near Pace's, on Thursday last, in which Jack Brown was killed. The row was general, but it is presumed that Bushrod Ritter was the man who killed Brown.

IF the gentleman who took an overcoat from our sanctum, by mistake, will identify himself to us, we will hear something to our advantage.

THE Delta, with her barge from Cincinnati, both fully freighted, landed at the wharf on Sunday. She is on her way to New Orleans.

Thanks to Mr. H. C. Landrum, clerk of the fine steamer H. D. Newcomb, for late Southern papers and other favors.

WE return our acknowledgments to W. A. Patman, Esq., of the mail service, for Cincinnati papers of yesterday.

THE River.—The river continues to fall at this point, with 4 feet 8 inches in the pass on the Falls.

THE Know-Nothing State Council will meet in this city on Thursday next.

Weekly Review of the Market.

Office of Louisville Democrat.

REMARKS.—Our quotations refer only to the whole sale prices. For retail prices a slight advance is always charged. All the specialties of the market will be found in our columns.

The demand for all kinds of groceries has been very good during the week; the jobbing business, especially, has done a large business, and stocks of all descriptions are well supplied. The market for flour, however, is not so large as compared with the heavy export demand during the preceding several weeks. High prices, coupled with continued irregularity in the money market, have tended to a great extent to cause the falling off in the demand for provisions, while the low state of water in the early part of the week prevented the supply of tobacco from being received as usual.

The market for sugar is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for coffee is also well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for tea is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for spices is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for oil is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for butter is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for eggs is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for poultry is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for fruit is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for vegetables is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for fish is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for game is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

Colony.—There has been a very brisk demand, with a slight advance in price, for all kinds of goods, and the market is well supplied.

REMARKS.—Our quotations refer only to the whole sale prices. For retail prices a slight advance is always charged. All the specialties of the market will be found in our columns.

The demand for all kinds of groceries has been very good during the week; the jobbing business, especially, has done a large business, and stocks of all descriptions are well supplied. The market for flour, however, is not so large as compared with the heavy export demand during the preceding several weeks. High prices, coupled with continued irregularity in the money market, have tended to a great extent to cause the falling off in the demand for provisions, while the low state of water in the early part of the week prevented the supply of tobacco from being received as usual.

The market for sugar is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for coffee is also well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for tea is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for spices is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for oil is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for butter is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for eggs is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for poultry is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for fruit is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for vegetables is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for fish is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for game is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for spirits is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for liquors is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for beer is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for ale is well supplied, and the price is steady.

The market for wine is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for brandy is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for rum is well supplied, and the price is steady. The market for gin is well supplied, and the price is steady.

